Skills Of Leadership

Sir John Lowther County Scout Activity Centre, Rushton Road, Glendon, Kettering, NN14 1UB

This will include delivering the content of the current Skills of Management, Achieving Growth and Meeting the Challenges over one weekend with additional sessions that will support leaders to undertake their roles. If you're looking to complete a Wood badge for a leadership role, this weekend will cover all learning requirements. This course is open to Lead Volunteers, District & County Team Leaders, and all aspiring Volunteer Leaders. The full course runs over two days, but you may choose to only attend one day, please book for every day you aim to attend. Please note this course is residential, so it is important that you indicate your preferences for accommodation when booking. Lunch and Dinner will be provided on Saturday; Breakfast and Lunch will be provided on Sunday. There will be evening activities on the Saturday and we envision we will finish around 9pm. There is an element of pre-learning required for this course and this will be shared with you after booking. If there are any specific leadership topics, you'd like the team to consider including in the weekend of learning, please email lynn.richardson@scouts.org.uk
